Kansas City Wellness Center COMING SOON

As you may be aware, the Kansas City Wellness Center building was completed in 2021. However, its opening was delayed, fully dependent on a determination by the Department of Labor (DOL). Since the wellness center was built on land owned by the Apprenticeship Fund, the DOL had to approve for Carpenters Wellness Center in Kansas City, a union-owned building, to open for business. Many thanks to the MACRC leadership, Training Fund Trustees, and their legal teams for their dedication to improving healthcare for our families. In January 2024, the DOL approved the terms of the settlement agreement with the union.

Next Steps

While it's an exciting announcement, there's a lot of work to do before the Kansas City Wellness Center's doors can open to serve our participants and their families at the same level of care as our wellness center in St. Louis. By direction of the Board of Trustees, the health plan is already working diligently to secure partners and services that meet our needs. Please watch for more information as we update you over the coming months.

Plan improvements

1 Continuing Eligibility Rules: Quarterly Test Improvement

As you know, in recent years benefits were reduced to help strengthen the health plan. Good news: The health plan is growing stronger! For this reason, Trustees determined that an improvement to our eligibility tests is possible.

With hours worked beginning May 1, 2024, the QUARTERLY RULE ELIGIBILITY TEST is improved. What does this mean? Less hours will be required per quarter to continue eligibility. Details:

QUARTERLY RULE TEST

Effective with hours worked May 1 or after, a participant who works at least 330 credit hours in a Contribution Quarter, will have eligibility extended through the Benefit Quarter that next follows that Contribution Quarter.

Hours worked February - April 2024 will follow the current Quarterly Rule, so 360 hours are required to continue coverage for July - September 2024. New plan rules will require 330 hours worked May - July 2024 to continue coverage for October - December 2024.

The Plan's Contribution & Benefit Quarter table is included for reference:

CONTRIBUTION QUARTER hours worked	provides coverage for	BENEFIT QUARTER eligibility period
May, June, July	→	October, November, December
August, September, October	→	January, February, March
November, December, January	→	April, May, June
February, March, April	→	July, August, September

Other eligibility tests remain the same. For a complete list, scan the QR code, or visit: laborfunds.org/health-and-welfare-plan-eligibility

New Health Plan SPD Coming Summer 2024

Watch for your new Summary Plan Description (SPD) coming soon!

Your health plan document effective January 1, 2024, has been updated with all approved material modifications since 2019. If you elect to GoGreen in the Member Portal, you will receive the SPD electronically in your portal. All other participants will receive the updated SPD by mail.

These amendments were approved by the Board of Trustees in the March 2024 meeting.

2 Newborn Enrollment Guidelines

Initial newborn eligibility under the health plan has been updated to allow participants more time to complete an updated Enrollment Form and submit all necessary supporting documents when a dependent child is born. Now, participants have 90 days to submit required paperwork (previously the plan allowed 30 days).

Newborns will be granted eligibility using the following guidelines retroactive to July 1, 2023:

ENROLLMENT FORM received	SUPPORTING documents rcvd	ELIGIBILITY begins
Within 90 days of birth date	Within 90 days of birth date	On the date of the child's birth
91 days or more after birth date	91 days or more after birth date	On the date the Enrollment form and proof of relationship documents are received
Within 90 days of birth date	91 days or more after birth date	After 90-day newborn enrollment ends, eligibility is reinstated on the 1 st of the month in which proof of relationship documents are received*

*For example, if required supporting documentation is received after 90 days, on the 15th of a month, coverage for the newborn will be reinstated on the 1st of that month. Required documents for eligibility are listed on page 2 of the Enrollment Form.

3 Extension of Hours-Based Eligibility for Disability

Effective December 1, 2023, health coverage will be updated for participants with verified Total Disability as described below; updates are bold in blue.

If a participant is unable to work the minimum amount of hours to maintain eligibility due to an occupational or non-occupational Total Disability, and has accrued at least 1,440 hours during the 12-consecutive months ending with the month in which the Total Disability began, the participant's eligibility will be continued, without contributions, until the earlier of:

CURRENT rule	UPDATED rule effective 12/1/2023
The end of the next Benefit Quarter in which the disability ends,	The end of the next Benefit Quarter associated with the Contribution Quarter in which the disability ends,
The end of the next Benefit Quarter in which the participant returns to work, or	The end of the next Benefit Quarter associated with the Contribution Quarter in which the participant returns to work, or
The last day of the Benefit Quarter containing the first anniversary date the participant's short-term disability began.	The last day of the Benefit Quarter containing the first anniversary date the participant's short-term disability began.

If a participant qualifies for a Disability Extension and returns to work, the participant will receive the extension through the end of the BENEFIT QUARTER that corresponds with the CONTRIBUTION QUARTER in which they returned to work (not to exceed one year).

Site of Care: Radiology

DEFINED

In May 2023, the health plan adopted Site of Care Incentives to promote the use of independent labs and radiology. When covered individuals use these independent facilities, it drives out of pocket cost down for you, and the overall cost for the plan is significantly less.

However, there has been a lot of confusion regarding which independent, freestanding radiology facilities are a part of the site of care incentive benefit. Some hospital-system radiology centers refer to their facilities as “freestanding,” but they are not contracted as and do not bill as freestanding facilities; they bill as a hospital system. In addition, some non-hospital radiology facilities are owned and operated by physician groups, which further complicates the definition.

What you need to know

The site of care radiology incentive for X-rays, MRIs and similar, receive a $25 copay only when they are independently owned, freestanding imaging facilities (not hospital or physician group owned). If you have any questions or would like to check if an in-network radiology facility near you meets the site of care incentive standards, please contact Participant Services.

CARPENTERS HEALTH PLAN: THE COST OF COVERAGE

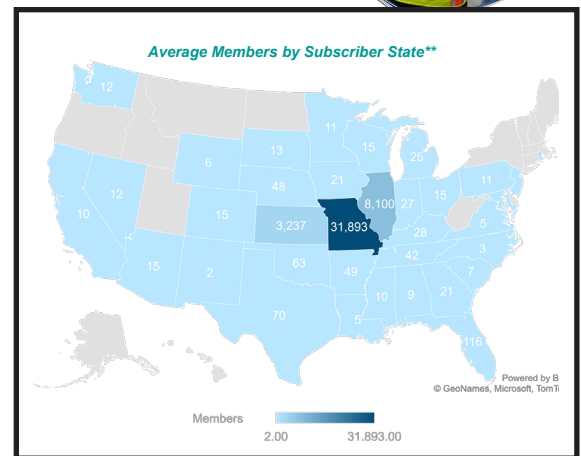

The cost of healthcare

Healthcare is costly - to you, to your employer, to your health plan. However, despite the higher and still rising cost of healthcare, the cost of coverage for our participants compared to the Construction Norm and Missouri Norm is significantly less.

How our benefits compare

Due to significant network discounts and network utilization management, high-cost claims, such as hospital inpatient stays, as well as in- and outpatient surgeries, etc., the cost for medical and pharmacy claims paid per member per month (PMPM), January 2023 - October 2023, was 18.4% lower than the Missouri Norm, as well as 15.7% lower than the Construction Norm. In addition, the medical out of pocket PMPM was 38.3% less than the Missouri Norm and 42.5% lower than the Construction Norm.

Bottom line: Carpenters Health Plan is providing benefits through UMR/UnitedHealthcare and Express Scripts that are better than state and industry trends. Though there is no argument that all of healthcare is costly, this is good news for you and your families.

Recent Changes to UMR's Member Portal Login Process

The HealthSafe ID secure login process used by UMR-managed member portals and mobile apps recently discontinued use of security questions to confirm the identity of registered users.

On April 10, users who used security questions for multi-factor authentication (MFA) began prompting users to switch to a phone-based method to stay up to date with the latest security protocols and digital user experiences.

After April 10, the next time an impacted member signs into the member portal or app, they will enter their username and password and be asked to confirm their identity by answering one of their selected security questions.

When the member verifies their identity, they will be notified their security questions are being removed. They then will be prompted to select a phone-based method (call or text) for authentication. Once they have verified their phone number by entering the code sent to their phone, they will be entered into the portal or app.

This is a minor change that is very common practice in user authentication for secure websites.

HealthSafe ID is a centralized identity management solution that enables member access to all participating UnitedHealth Group applications with a single login. Multi-factor authentication protects the user from an unknown person trying to access their data, such as their protected health information, personal identifying details or financial assets.
